

Resolution 1997-3 of the
Fox Canyon Groundwater Management Agency

HONORING

CARLA BARD

WHEREAS, Mrs. Bard contributed greatly to the development of the Fox Canyon Groundwater Management Agency by providing input and suggestions on many issues and subjects, and was a noted expert and authority on regional, as well as local water issues; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Bard began her nearly 50-year career as a volunteer at the Children's Home Society helping to arrange adoptions for orphans, and continued to work on committees that studied loss of farmland, and evaluations of the Criminal Justice System among others; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Bard was an activist in community and environmental issues, and was a very influential force in water and development policies, and a key participant in drafting the ordinances of the Fox Canyon Groundwater Management Agency; and

WHEREAS, she brought her knowledge and experience as a County Planning Commissioner, member of the Los Angeles Regional Water Quality Control Board, and Chairwoman of the State Water Resources Control Board to Ventura County because she truly believed in water quality; and

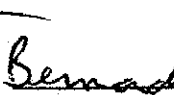

WHEREAS, during her very distinguished career, she served with great distinction and grace, while contributing significantly to the success of the Fox Canyon Groundwater Management Agency.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Directors of the Fox Canyon Groundwater Management Agency express sincere thanks in honoring CARLA bard for her years of dedicated, loyal and exemplary service. The Board also extends great appreciation for her many vital accomplishments and gifts of hard work and true caring about water and farming in this county.

Presented by the People and Board of Directors of the GMA this 19th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1997.
